(Bells from ankle to knee, gold rings in the nose, weird headresses, fantastic costumes. These are common-places in the fastnesses of East Africa even in these modern times. James Powers, International News Service correspondent who is accompanying the Gatti-Hallcrafters expedition on a safari to East Africa's mountains of the Moon, tells of tribal dress and dances in the following colorful dispatch.)

ON SAFARI WITH THE GATTI-HALLCRAFTERS EXPEDITION TO THE MOUNTAINS OF THE MOON, NEAR KWALE, KENYA, BRITISH EAST AFRICA (By Air-mail) (INS)—We were "invaded" today by a screaming tribe of natives.

They meant no harm. They merely had come to dance for us and welcome the expedition to this part of Africa. They are known as the Wudigo—a good looking race, with the women especially well featured and intelligent.

The women were brilliantly dressed and ornamented; the men wore prosaically clad in semi-European clothing.

The dance master, however, displayed a rugged naked chest and wrapped only a short sarong.

Struck in their hair, were gold bracelets or cheap plastic bangles which held big red and white, bell-shaped "desert roses", or small lavender orchids.

The young women had gold buttons in their ears or three brightly painted wood discs pushed through the ear at intervals from the lobe to the top of the ear. Many also had gold rings in their nose and gold buttons pushed through the side.

Several of the men had crude bells strung around a leg with

BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS*Activities of Interest To
All in The Various Communities*GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Instead of presenting a program at its meeting on Friday Plumsteadville Grange took up a discussion concerning community projects that might be sponsored by the Grange.

Opening the discussion was the master, Raymond Gross, who suggested, among other things, the establishment of a recreation center in the basement of the building. This, he said, might be conducted under supervision of the Grange.

Mr. Gross suggested also that each woman member of the Grange prepare a can or two of vegetables or fruit to be donated to hospitals. He spoke also of the importance of children having protection from the elements while waiting the school buses, and suggested that the Grange sponsor the construction of a number of shelters.

Taking up the discussion, Philip Maddux suggested the sponsorship of a safety education program for the young people. This, Mr. Maddux said, might be established through the cooperation of the State Police or automobile clubs.

Much of this type of training, it was said, is given in high schools, but some young people from the rural sections do not attend high school.

Mrs. Raymond Steeley said she feels the Grange has been doing good work for the community by making its hall available to the Four-H club and the senior extension club.

After the discussions it was decided to take up the shelter

38th Anniversary Is An Occasion For A Party

TULLYSTOWN, March 2 — Mrs. Frank Cattani arranged a surprise birthday party for her husband, on his 38th anniversary, Friday evening. The affair was held in the Cattani home on Chestnut avenue.

The evening was spent in a social way with refreshments served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Cutchinal, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cordisco, Mrs. James Scandella, and children, Jean, Anthony and Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. George Cutchinal, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cattani and son, John.

The individual sold gasoline all day and serviced cars. Then he attended a meeting last evening and asked to be excused at about 10:30. He left the meeting only to return in about five minutes. "Will someone give me a push? I don't have a drop of gas in the car," he said, as a deep red glow crept over his face.

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Newportville Fire Company, scheduled for this evening, has been postponed, due to the sudden death of Mrs. William Speck.

(Bells from ankle to knee, gold rings in the nose, weird headresses, fantastic costumes. These are common-places in the fastnesses of East Africa even in these modern times. James Powers, International News Service correspondent who is accompanying the Gatti-Hallcrafters expedition on a safari to East Africa's mountains of the Moon, tells of tribal dress and dances in the following colorful dispatch.)

ON SAFARI WITH THE GATTI-HALLCRAFTERS EXPEDITION TO THE MOUNTAINS OF THE MOON, NEAR KWALE, KENYA, BRITISH EAST AFRICA (By Air-mail) (INS)—We were "invaded" today by a screaming tribe of natives.

They meant no harm. They merely had come to dance for us and welcome the expedition to this part of Africa. They are known as the Wudigo—a good looking race, with the women especially well featured and intelligent.

The women were brilliantly dressed and ornamented; the men more prosaically clad in semi-European clothing.

The dance master, however, displayed a rugged naked chest and wrapped only a short sarong.

Stuck in their hair, were gold bracelets or cheap plastic bows which held big red and white, bell-shaped "desert roses", or small lavender orchids.

The young women had gold buttons in their ears or three brightly painted wood discs pushed through the ear at intervals from the lobe to the top of the ear. Many also had gold rings in their nose and gold buttons pushed through the side.

Several of the men had crude bells strung around a leg with

Embarrassing Moments

(By "The Stroller")

A certain gasoline station proprietor who started in business here yesterday morning found himself stalled on the street without gasoline in his car. This happened about 15 hours after taking possession of the establishment, where there were hundreds of gallons of the motor fuel.

The individual sold gasoline all day and serviced cars. Then he attended a meeting last evening and asked to be excused at about 10:30. He left the meeting only to return in about five minutes. "Will someone give me a push? I don't have a drop of gas in the car," said he, as a deep red glow crept over his face.

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Newportville Fire Company, scheduled for this evening, has been postponed, due to the sudden death of Mrs. William Speck.

WARRIORS TO PLAY WEST CHESTER IN P. I. A. A. OPENING

Bristol High will open the PIAA basketball tournament tonight, meeting the West Chester High school on the neutral Norristown High School floor. Game will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

According to local records, Bristol High has yet to win a game in the tourney and last season was eliminated by Radnor High in a close game.

Bristol's record for the season is 18 wins and losses and their latest rating in the state was 47.6. West Chester, Suburban 3 champions, has a state rating of 53.1.

Coach Jerry Bloom feels confident that his lads will take the game from the Chester Pike boys and will have in his starting lineup: "Jim" Sottile, "Johnny" Pindar, "Don" DeLong, "Ham" Konefal, and "Jimmy" Marshall.

Coach Bloom will depend on Sottile and Pindar to do most of his scoring as these boys played on the Norristown court last season and have tournament experience. Sottile, a junior, has scored 395 points in 23 games, averaging 17.2 points per game. Pindar has accounted for 342 points in 23 games. This is Pindar's last season of basketball.

Since the Warriors' win over Trenton Catholic, spirit has been high at the local school and students feel that their players can thump the West Chester lads.

Friday night, Morrisville High treks to Norristown to represent Lower Bucks County in class B against Prospect Park while also on Friday night, Fallsington will play Clifton Heights at Radnor High in a Class C game.

ROHM & HAAS LOSES TO ST. ANN'S QUINTET

St. Ann's A. A. spoiled the Rohm and Haas team's chances of a deadlock for first place in the Bristol Basketball League by trimming the chemical workers, 44-34, last night on the high school floor. The defeat enabled the Proty team to win the regular season championship for the second consecutive.

HOCKEY CHAMPIONS DEFEAT RAMBLERS

The Atlantic City Americans, defending champions in the Eastern States Roller Hockey League, scored a 2-0 victory over the Bristol Ramblers before 300 in the Ventnor Sports Center, N. J., Saturday night. It was the brilliant work of Moffit, who made all the goals, which spelled defeat for the Ramblers club.

Lawrence Ritter, who was one of the leading scorers last year, was covered closely and as a result had few good shots.

There is no doubt that this was the roughest game of the season, as there was plenty of hard checking, and one actual fight that sent Vanderhoff of Atlantic City to the cooler for five minutes.

CELTICS MAKE POOR CLASS ON FOUL MARK

The Celtics had a bad night from the foul line last night and this caused them to go down to a 34-32 defeat at the hands of the Penn A. C. in a Bristol Youth League game on the Mutual Aid court.

In the other Youth League game, the Keystone Oilers clinched second place with a 44-35 triumph over the Terchon Post Cadets. Score at half-time was 17-16 with the Oilers in front.

Girl Scouts Present 20th Radio Program

The 20th program of the Girl Scouts' Radio Show was presented by the Parkland Brownies No. 24 at 9:15 Saturday morning. This program was under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Walsh, assisted by Mrs. Helen Daywalt. The accompanist was Miss Mary Maag.

The following numbers were given: Chorus, "Oh Suzanna," piano solo, "Old Folks at Home," by Ruth Daywalt; vocal solo, "The Bible," by Linda Pross; accordion solo, "Red Poppy," played by Joyce Pross; piano solo, "The Bees in Clover," by Frances Wagenseller; sextet and chorus, "Too Fat Polka," by Jane Rodell, Margie Leway, Eileen Lovell, Janet Straub, Valerie Russell, Cathleen Little, and the chorus; vocal solo, "I'm Looking Over a Four-Leaf Clover," sung by Gail Greene. An interview by Kathleen Myers on "Our Hike to Mt. Misery" ended this week's broadcast.

The winner of the 18th program was Eleanor Breuninger of the Easterville Brownie Troop No. 16.

Car Abandoned By The Owners Destroyed By Fire

MORRISVILLE, March 2—When engine trouble developed in the automobile of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Tama, W. Ferry road, on Sunday evening, they abandoned the machine at W. Ferry road and Penna. avenue. When they returned they found the car destroyed by fire.

The two had boarded a bus after being unable to proceed in their own machine, and went to Trenton, N. J.

Shortly after they left a passing motorist saw smoke emanating from the car, and notified Morrisville firemen.

Members of Capitol View and Union Companies responded, under Chief Thomas Moore, but the car was a wreck by the time they arrived.

Chief Moore attributed the fire to a short circuit. The car was a complete loss.

struction and the safety education projects. Committees to work out the details will be announced at the next meeting.

A car operated by Samuel Bauer, Allentown, and one operated by Paul E. Adams, of Quakertown, collided at Main street and Park avenue, Quakertown, on Friday.

The brakes on the Bauer car were frozen and failed to hold. Damage amounted to approximately $200 to the Bauer car and $100 to the Adams car.

Fannie Hicks, Houston, Texas, operator of a car proceeding north on Main street, collided at the intersection at Main street and Park avenue with a car operated by James Langhorne, Quakertown, who was traveling east on Park avenue.

Damage to the Hicks car amounted to between $75 and $100 and about $25 to the Langhorne car. The Texas woman, who had arrived here several days before, said she was not accustomed to driving on icy roads and was unable to avoid the collision.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Cressman, of Collegeville, formerly of Quakertown, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schoenly, Collegeville. Due to the illness of Mrs. Cressman, the occasion was quietly observed.

Police Lineups Subject For Class

"There should be two officers in charge," said Holmes. "One to ask the witnesses questions as he views the suspects, and another to take notes. Notes should be accurately taken and a positive identification made, otherwise when the case is brought to court the criminal may be dismissed on grounds of insufficient evidence or wrong identification. Each person used in the line-up should be numbered. After each witness identifies, the men should be switched around and the witness again pick the suspect to be doubly sure.

"You may run into all types of witnesses. Some are definite, some indefinite and some violent. Care should be taken to keep the witnesses from any violence to the suspects." A case was cited where a person was held in connection with an attack case. The witness, the father of the girl attacked, was brought in and seeing the man who he believed committed the attack whipped out two guns and fired away. Luckily he missed.

It was pointed out by Holmes that persons may be positive in identifying a witness and yet may still be wrong. An example given was a robbery case in which officers had the real criminal lined-up with four other men. The person who was robbed definitely identified one of the other men with the crime and it turned out that the man picked was serving a jail sentence at the time of the felony.

At the close of the session a mock line-up was demonstrated in which members of the class and instructor participated. The instructor acted the part of the witness, demonstrating each type.

Monday next, the theme will be "Preparation of Criminal Cases for Court." George W. Tucker will conduct the class.

and a member of the National Exchange Club study panel for model aviation, was the guest speaker. He praised the Kiwanis Aero Club for the fine work which has been done in the past with the youth of Doylestown and vicinity and the rapid growth of the club. Aldsworth, one of the better known contest directors of A. M. A., said that the Academy of Model Aeronautics has been watching the progress of the Kiwanis Aero Club closely.

The guest speaker is in full charge of all model airplane meets in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and has already scheduled more meets in 1948 than were held in 1946 and 1947 combined.

THESE ARE ALL THE MEN WE FOUND IN THE HOUSE, CHIEF. BUT ON THE TOP FLOOR — GIRLS

ACCORDING TO SAM, THESE GIRLS WERE USED TO LURE MEN INTO THE GANG. APPARENTLY THEY KNEW NOTHING OF AULGOLD'S PURPOSE.

WELL, NOW WHAT'S YOUR STORY? HOW DID YOU HAPPEN TO COME HERE? WHY DIDN'T YOU GET IN TOUCH WITH US?

OH, NO! ...NOT AGAIN!

Police Lineups Subject For Class

"There should be two officers in charge," said Holmes. "One to ask the witnesses questions as he views the suspects, and another to take notes. Notes should be accurately taken and a positive identification made, otherwise when the case is brought to court the criminal may be dismissed on grounds of insufficient evidence or wrong identification. Each person used in the line-up should be numbered. After each witness identifies, the men should be switched around and the witness again pick the suspect to be doubly sure.

"You may run into all types of witnesses. Some are definite, some indefinite and some violent. Care should be taken to keep the witnesses from any violence to the suspects." A case was cited where a person was held in connection with an attack case. The witness, the father of the girl attacked, was brought in and seeing the man who he believed committed the attack whipped out
